 - Courtesy runner rules apply under the tie-breaker rule (see Courtesy Runner section below)

- No composite double wall or triple wall bats are allowed.
- Batters will have a one ball, one-strike count upon entering the batter's box.
- Leadoff batters may be of either gender; however female batters must always follow male batters, including at the end of the batting order. If a man ends the order, a man may not start the batting order.
- Women may bat back to back, but men may not (An automatic out will be assessed between any two men batting in a row, including if a man is the last batter in the previous inning and a man starts batting in the next inning).
- If a male batter is walked, he is awarded 2nd base.
 - If less than 2 outs, the next female batter has to hit.
 - With two outs, until the time female batters step into the batter box, they have the option of walking or hitting.
- Bunting is not allowed.
- At umpire discretion, batters may be called out for throwing bats in a negative manner or in locations that could cause injury.

- Runners passing the commitment line from 3rd base to home, may not return to 3rd base.

Infield Fly Rule

The batter is out on an infield fly. (An infield fly is a fair fly ball that the umpire judges could be caught by an infielder, pitcher, or catcher with ordinary effort and when there are runners on 1st and 2nd or 1st, 2nd and 3rd base and less than 2 outs.)

Pitches or Pitching

- A strike is called when:
 - a legal pitch hits the plate or the carpet
 - a batter swings and misses the ball
 - a batter hits a foul ball
- A legal pitch will be between a 6 feet arch to a 12 feet arch.
- Pitcher protection will be in effect; meaning that if the batter hits the ball back to the pitcher, and the umpire judges it to be within an imaginary box that goes from the ground to the pitchers within glove height, and within 6 feet of the pitching lane, the batter will be called out. If the pitcher jumps up to catch the ball it is not an out.

- If there is a play at 2nd base and a player running to 2nd base does not slide or move out of the way an interference will be called and a double play will be assessed.
- If a woman is at bat men may not throw from the outfield to 1st base but may throw to an infielder who may throw to 1st base.
