Now that spring is slowly creeping in, residents of Page might consider stepping outside and trying out the disc golf course by the library and CCC College. The course, consists of a series of metal baskets designed for catching discs thrown from varying distances.

Sets of discs, along with handy carrying cases, rules, & how-to guides to get you started at this fun outdoor sport that combines the best of frisbee & golf are available for check out at the Page Public Library. Each include one driver, one mid-range, and one putter. Disc golf is a leisurely, enjoyable game that does not require previous experience or skill. It can be played solo, with a group of friends, or as a family.

Take advantage of the sunny weather and check out some discs at the library today.
